

CHURCH OF OUR SAVIOUR

Second Sunday after Pentecost

June 7, 2026 10:00 am

Choral Holy Eucharist

Welcome to our Sunday morning worship service at Church of Our Saviour.

We are glad you are here.

For those who cannot join us in person, today's service is being live cast and recorded. Please note the recording may be made publicly available on YouTube and Facebook.

SERVING TODAY

Presider: Rt. Rev. Brian Richard Seage
Preacher: Rt. Rev. Brian Richard Seage
Music Director: Jeanette Tietze
Lector: Caroline Gibbs, Koko Peters
Eucharistic Minister: Bill Cullen
Intercessor: Koko Peters
Youth Acolyte: Cora Dawson
Ushers: John MacLeod, Mike Peters
Altar: Connie Goldsmith, Susan Wetzler
Flowers: Shirley Dockstader

The Christian spiritual path is always walked in community. Our worship together is our response to the love of God. Gathering for worship allows us to support one another as we seek to respond to the call to Christian life.

If you are new to The Episcopal Church, we invite you to join in worship as you feel comfortable. The congregation reads the bold portions in this booklet in unison. Some people practice their personal piety through gestures such as making the sign of the cross or bowing at certain times because they find it helps them to focus and deepen their experience. There is no requirement to do so but, if you'd like to try, feel free to follow the lead of others in the room. You are invited to participate in all elements of the service, including taking Communion.

We extend a special welcome to families of all configurations. If you are attending with a family member who needs more room to wiggle or make noise, they'll probably find others like themselves in the toddler room off the narthex (vestibule), which families are welcome (but in no way required) to use.

The Episcopal Church is rooted in the Anglican tradition. We use The Book of Common Prayer, a book filled with prayers and liturgies that shape our worship. It is the red book you will find in front of you. Any Episcopal Church you attend will use a similar pattern for worship. This booklet makes use of The Book of Common Prayer and other texts, with a sidebar to help explain the shape and purpose of our liturgy. Your questions and your participation are always welcome

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

PRELUDE

THE ACCLAMATION

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Alleluia, Christ is risen.

People The Lord is risen indeed. Alleluia.

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Hymnal 401

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

O God, from whom all good proceeds: Grant that by your inspiration we may think those things that are right, and by your merciful guiding may do them; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

People Amen.

THE FIRST READING

Hosea 5:15-6:6

Thus says the Lord: "I will return again to my place until they acknowledge their guilt and seek my face. In their distress they will beg my favor: 'Come, let us return to the Lord; for it is he who has torn, and he will heal us; he has struck down, and he will bind us up. After two days he will revive us; on the third day he will raise us up, that we may live before him. Let us know, let us press on to know the Lord; his appearing is as sure as the dawn; he will come to us like the showers, like the spring rains that water the earth.' What shall I do with you, O Ephraim? What shall I do with you, O Judah? Your love is like a morning cloud, like the dew that goes away early. Therefore I have hewn them by the prophets, I have killed them by the words of my mouth, and my judgment goes forth as the light. For I desire steadfast love and not sacrifice, the knowledge of God rather than burnt offerings."

Reader Hear what the spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

The Liturgy of the Word is the first half of our worship. We focus on God's work in the world by reading and reflecting on scripture and through prayer.

The opening sentences serve as a greeting for those who have gathered for worship.

This prayer, called the Collect for Purity, invites us to step out of our crowded day and into a consciousness of God's loving presence.

A hymn of praise always follows the opening words, so that we can begin our worship in gratitude.

A collect is a type of prayer that "collects" or "gathers" the intentions of the people.

There are different collects appointed for each day of the church year that attend to the themes of the readings and the church season.

We follow a three-year cycle of readings called a lectionary. On the same day the same scripture lessons are heard in congregations of all types throughout the world.

It is customary for lay people to read the Lessons. We welcome new readers. If you feel called to be one, please let the celebrant or a member of the community know.

Psalm 50:7-15

Hear, O my people, and I will speak:
"O Israel, I will bear witness against you; *
for I am God, your God.
I do not accuse you because of your sacrifices; *
your offerings are always before me.
I will take no bull-calf from your stalls, *
nor he-goats out of your pens;
For all the beasts of the forest are mine, *
the herds in their thousands upon the hills.
I know every bird in the sky, *
and the creatures of the fields are in my sight.
If I were hungry, I would not tell you, *
for the whole world is mine and all that is in it.
Do you think I eat the flesh of bulls, *
or drink the blood of goats?
Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and make good your vows to the Most High.
Call upon me in the day of trouble; *
I will deliver you, and you shall honor me."

THE SECOND READING

Romans 4:13-25

The promise that he would inherit the world did not come to Abraham or to his descendants through the law but through the righteousness of faith. If it is the adherents of the law who are to be the heirs, faith is null and the promise is void. For the law brings wrath; but where there is no law, neither is there violation.

For this reason it depends on faith, in order that the promise may rest on grace and be guaranteed to all his descendants, not only to the adherents of the law but also to those who share the faith of Abraham (for he is the father of all of us, as it is written, "I have made you the father of many nations") —in the presence of the God in whom he believed, who gives life to the dead and calls into existence the things that do not exist. Hoping against hope, he believed that he would become "the father of many nations," according to what was said, "So numerous shall your descendants be." He did not weaken in faith when he considered his own body, which was already as good as dead (for he was about a hundred years old), or when he considered the barrenness of Sarah's womb. No distrust made him waver concerning the promise of God, but he grew strong in his faith as he gave glory to God, being fully convinced that God was able to do what he had promised. Therefore his faith "was reckoned to him as righteousness." Now the words, "it was reckoned to him," were written not for his sake alone, but for ours also. It will be reckoned to us who believe in him who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, who was handed over to death for our trespasses and was raised for our justification.

Reader

Hear what the spirit is saying to God's people.

The Psalms, ancient songs and poetry from the Old Testament, are sometimes called the prayer book of the Bible. They appear in our Book of Common Prayer as the Psalter, beginning on page 582.

Many of the Psalms are traditionally attributed to King David. They may be sung, recited, or read antiphonally.

The Second Reading, sometimes called the Epistle, is usually selected from the letters that were written to the early church communities. They are typically attributed to Paul, Peter and other apostles were written to guide and strengthen the young Christian communities.

People Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Matthew 9:9-13, 18-26

Please stand if you are able

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Saviour Jesus Christ according to People Matthew.

Glory to you Lord Christ

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man called Matthew sitting at the tax booth; and he said to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him. And as he sat at dinner in the house, many tax collectors and sinners came and were sitting with him and his disciples. When the Pharisees saw this, they said to his disciples, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and sinners?" But when he heard this, he said, "Those who are well have no need of a physician, but those who are sick. Go and learn what this means, 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice.' For I have come to call not the righteous but sinners."

While he was saying these things to them, suddenly a leader of the synagogue came in and knelt before him, saying, "My daughter has just died; but come and lay your hand on her, and she will live." And Jesus got up and followed him, with his disciples. Then suddenly a woman who had been suffering from hemorrhages for twelve years came up behind him and touched the fringe of his cloak, for she said to herself, "If I only touch his cloak, I will be made well." Jesus turned, and seeing her he said, "Take heart, daughter; your faith has made you well." And instantly the woman was made well. When Jesus came to the leader's house and saw the flute players and the crowd making a commotion, he said, "Go away; for the girl is not dead but sleeping." And they laughed at him. But when the crowd had been put outside, he went in and took her by the hand, and the girl got up. And the report of this spread throughout that district.

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON

Rt. Rev. Brian Richard Seage

All sit.

THE NICENE CREED

Please stand as you are able.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,

The word Gospel means 'good news'. We hear part of the story of Jesus Christ, who, by revealing the depth of God's love for us, is the ultimate bringer of good news to the world.

The Gospel readings are taken from the New Testament books of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

Matthew's Gospel is especially Jewish in tone and audience, so the passage highlights how Jesus fulfills Israel's Scriptures while challenging purity boundaries and social status. In Matthew 9, that context makes the meal with tax collectors and the healing stories read as signs that God's mercy extends to outsiders.

The sermon "breaks open" the Word of God and proclaims the gospel in the context of the readings from scripture, the liturgical occasion and the gathered congregation.

The Nicene Creed is a statement of our Christian faith. Based on the older Apostles Creed, the Nicene Creed was adopted by the Council of Nicaea in 325. It was shaped over the next century to resolve controversies over the divine and human natures of Jesus Christ, and the relationship of mutuality within the Holy Trinity.

God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Reader I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for our Bishop, Austin, and our diocese; for this parish community and this gathering; and for all ministers and people.

I ask your prayers for Church of Our Saviour as we continue our journey through this time of transition and discernment, and for wisdom and guidance in the search for our permanent rector.

In our Anglican cycle of prayer, we ask your prayers for The Scottish Episcopal Church. In our Diocesan cycle of prayer, we ask your prayers for the St. Columba's, Inverness, and Christ Church, Sausalito. In our parish cycle of prayer, we ask your prayers for Maxwell, Mealy and Freschl families and the Ministry of Vestry.
Pray for the Church.

Silence.

Reader I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people.
Pray for justice and peace.

Silence.

In prayer we bring the needs of the world, and our own needs, to God.

During The Prayers of the People, we pray for:

- The Universal Church, its members, and its mission
- The Nation and all in authority
- The welfare of the world
- The concerns of the local community
- Those who suffer and those in any trouble
- The departed

You are invited to name people, places or things in your heart or out loud following each intercession.

Reader I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of the divine.
Pray that they may find and be found by God in Christ.

Silence.

Reader I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison. For healing, we pray especially for Nini, Rom, Debbie, Kay, Larry, Nancy, Michelle, Katie, Leela, Betty, Anne, Roland, Jeanne.
Pray for all in any need or trouble.

Silence.

Reader I ask your prayers for the departed
Pray for those who have died.

Silence.

CONFESSION OF SIN

The Deacon or Celebrant says

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Silence may be kept.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and People may greet one another in the name of Jesus Christ.

In the Peace, we acknowledge that we encounter Christ in one another, and we prepare to receive communion.

In ancient times, Christians would greet each other with "the kiss of peace". Today we shake hands or hug. There are no set words- "Peace," "God's Peace," and "The Peace of the Lord be with you," are all commonly used.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit, you replenish us and call us to fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing (say):

SANCTUS

Hymnal S-129

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love.

You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people. Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh

The Liturgy of the Table is the second half of our worship. We shift our focus to the altar, God's table, where we meet Christ in the bread and wine that is offered, blessed, and shared.

In the offertory we present ourselves before God by offering the fruits of our common life and work. Your generosity supports the many ministries of Church of Our Saviour and The Episcopal Church around the world.

We begin Holy Communion with a dialogue (sometimes sung) that invites us to turn our attention towards God.

In the Eucharistic Prayer we praise God for the God's creating, saving and redeeming acts throughout history, and especially for the gift of Jesus Christ.

As we sing the Sanctus (Latin for 'Holy') we join with the whole heavenly host in praising God who calls us into relationship with the whole Body of Christ across time and space.

in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life. On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever.
AMEN.

People Amen.
Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People Our Father, who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those
 who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom,
 and the power, and the glory,
 for ever and ever. Amen.

COMMUNION HYMN

Hymnal 676

Together, we say a "memorial acclamation" that acknowledges that God is always on the side of humanity: past, present and future.

The priest asks God to send the Holy Spirit to bless the bread, wine, and us as we prepare to receive Communion.

In "The Great Amen" we all join in asking Jesus to be present in the bread and the wine.

The Lord's Prayer is the link between our daily bread, meaning the things we need to get through each day, and the spiritual food we will receive in the Eucharist.

Just like the bread and wine, our lives, if we choose to open them up to God, can also be taken (accepted by God), blessed (assured of God's loving-kindness and Gluten free wafers are available on request. All who are seeking Christ are invited to receive communion. Hold out your hands and you will be given the bread. Help the cupbearer by guiding the chalice to your lips by the base. You may also receive the bread and the wine together. Hold the bread in your hand and the chalice-bearer will dip it in the wine and return it to your hand. You have fully received communion if you receive only the bread or the wine. If you would prefer to receive a blessing simply cross your arms over your chest. Whoever you are, and whatever you need today, you are welcome here and we are glad you are with us.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

People Eternal God, you have graciously accepted us as living members of our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Savior. Amen.

empowered to grow in God's Spirit), broken or poured (not held tightly in our own control), and shared (sent out to be Christ's presence in the world).

After communion, we say a prayer of thanksgiving together which reminds us to live our daily lives in the spirit of The Holy Eucharist, filled with thanksgiving, so that what we celebrate in the liturgy might become realized in our lives.

The priest offers the congregation a blessing that assures us of God's ongoing love, guidance, and presence in our lives.

The final act of our common worship is the Dismissal. It is not an afterthought, but an integral part of the service.

We are sent out as apostles, to carry forward Christ's own work to change the world, and to call forth God's Kingdom. We go out from the church in mission and ministry to the world.
