

CHURCH OF OUR SAVIOUR

Fifth Sunday after Pentecost

June 28, 2026 10:00 am

Choral Holy Eucharist

Welcome to our Sunday morning worship service at Church of Our Saviour.

We are glad you are here.

For those who cannot join us in person, today's service is being live cast and recorded. Please note the recording may be made publicly available on YouTube and Facebook.

SERVING TODAY

Presider: The Very Rev. Julia McCray-Goldsmith

Preacher: The Very Rev. Julia McCray-Goldsmith

Seminarian: David Mealy

Music Director: Jeanette Tietze

Lector: Caroline Gibbs, Jennifer MacCready

Eucharistic Ministers: Bill Cullen, Jen Dodge

Intercessor: Jen Dodge

Altar: Koko Peters, Gay Johnson

Flowers: Koko Peters

The Christian spiritual path is always walked in community. Our worship together is our response to the love of God. Gathering for worship allows us to support one another as we seek to respond to the call to Christian life.

If you are new to The Episcopal Church, we invite you to join in worship as you feel comfortable. The congregation reads the bold portions in this booklet in unison. Some people practice their personal piety through gestures such as making the sign of the cross or bowing at certain times because they find it helps them to focus and deepen their experience. There is no requirement to do so but, if you'd like to try, feel free to follow the lead of others in the room. You are invited to participate in all elements of the service, including taking Communion.

We extend a special welcome to families of all configurations. If you are attending with a family member who needs more room to wiggle or make noise, they'll probably find others like themselves in the toddler room off the narthex (vestibule), which families are welcome (but in no way required) to use.

The Episcopal Church is rooted in the Anglican tradition. We use The Book of Common Prayer, a book filled with prayers and liturgies that shape our worship. It is the red book you will find in front of you. Any Episcopal Church you attend will use a similar pattern for worship. This booklet makes use of The Book of Common Prayer and other texts, with a sidebar to help explain the shape and purpose of our liturgy. Your questions and your participation are always welcome

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

PRELUDE

THE ACCLAMATION

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People And blessed be God's kingdom, now and forever.

Celebrant Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord.

People Amen.

PROCESSIONAL HYMN

Hymnal 401

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone: Grant us so to be joined together in unity of spirit by their teaching, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

People Amen.

THE FIRST READING

Jeremiah 28:5-9

The prophet Jeremiah spoke to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests and all the people who were standing in the house of the Lord; and the prophet Jeremiah said, "Amen! May the Lord do so; may the Lord fulfill the words that you have prophesied, and bring back to this place from Babylon the vessels of the house of the Lord, and all the exiles. But listen now to this word that I speak in your hearing and in the hearing of all the people. The prophets who preceded you and me from ancient times prophesied war, famine, and pestilence against many countries and great kingdoms. As for the prophet who prophesies peace, when the word of that prophet comes true, then it will be known that the Lord has truly sent the prophet."

Reader Hear what the spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God. People

The Liturgy of the Word is the first half of our worship. We focus on God's work in the world by reading and reflecting on scripture and through prayer.

The opening sentences serve as a greeting for those who have gathered for worship.

This prayer, called the Collect for Purity, invites us to step out of our crowded day and into a consciousness of God's loving presence.

A hymn of praise always follows the opening words, so that we can begin our worship in gratitude.

A collect is a type of prayer that "collects" or "gathers" the intentions of the people.

There are different collects appointed for each day of the church year that attend to the themes of the readings and the church season.

We follow a three-year cycle of reading called a lectionary. On the same day the same scripture lessons are heard in congregations of all types throughout the world.

It is customary for lay people to read the Lessons. We welcome new readers. If you feel called to be one, please let the celebrant or a member of the community know.

The prophet Jeremiah confronts Hananiah in the temple during Judah's Babylonian crisis 594/593 BCE. When Hananiah predicts quick deliverance, Jeremiah responds that only fulfilled prophecy proves truth. He prays for peace but warns that the Lord's word is confirmed by events. The passage exposes false hope

Psalm 89:1-4,15-18

Your love, O Lord, for ever will I sing; *
from age to age my mouth will proclaim your faithfulness.
For I am persuaded that your love is established for ever; *
you have set your faithfulness firmly in the heavens.
"I have made a covenant with my chosen one; *
I have sworn an oath to David my servant:
'I will establish your line for ever, *
and preserve your throne for all generations.'"
Happy are the people who know the festal shout! *
they walk, O Lord, in the light of your presence.
They rejoice daily in your Name; *
they are jubilant in your righteousness.
For you are the glory of their strength, *
and by your favor our might is exalted.
Truly, the Lord is our ruler; *
the Holy One of Israel is our King.

THE SECOND READING

Romans 6:12-23

Do not let sin exercise dominion in your mortal bodies, to make you obey their passions. No longer present your members to sin as instruments of wickedness, but present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and present your members to God as instruments of righteousness. For sin will have no dominion over you, since you are not under law but under grace.

What then? Should we sin because we are not under law but under grace? By no means! Do you not know that if you present yourselves to anyone as obedient slaves, you are slaves of the one whom you obey, either of sin, which leads to death, or of obedience, which leads to righteousness? But thanks be to God that you, having once been slaves of sin, have become obedient from the heart to the form of teaching to which you were entrusted, and that you, having been set free from sin, have become slaves of righteousness. I am speaking in human terms because of your natural limitations. For just as you once presented your members as slaves to impurity and to greater and greater iniquity, so now present your members as slaves to righteousness for sanctification.

When you were slaves of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness. So what advantage did you then get from the things of which you now are ashamed? The end of those things is death. But now that you have been freed from sin and enslaved to God, the advantage you get is sanctification. The end is eternal life. For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Reader

Hear what the spirit is saying to God's people.

and the tension between comfort and divine judgment.

The Psalms, ancient songs and poetry from the Old Testament, are sometimes called the prayer book of the Bible. They appear in our Book of Common Prayer as the Psalter, beginning on page 582.

Many of the Psalms are traditionally attributed to King David. They may be sung, recited, or read antiphonally.

The Second Reading, sometimes called the Epistle, is usually selected from the letters that were written to the early church communities. They are typically attributed to Paul, Peter and other apostles were written to guide and strengthen the young Christian communities.

People Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL

Matthew 10:40-42

Please stand if you are able

Celebrant The Holy Gospel of our Saviour Jesus Christ according to People Matthew.

Glory to you Lord Christ

Jesus said, "Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple-- truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

SERMON

The Very Rev. Julia McCray-Goldsmith

All sit.

THE NICENE CREED

Please stand as you are able.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

The word Gospel means 'good news'. We hear part of the story of Jesus Christ, who, by revealing the depth of God's love for us, is the ultimate bringer of good news to the world.

The Gospel readings are taken from the New Testament books of Matthew, Mark, Luke and John.

The sermon "breaks open" the Word of God and proclaims the gospel in the context of the readings from scripture, the liturgical occasion and the gathered congregation.

The Nicene Creed is a statement of our Christian faith. Based on the older Apostles Creed, the Nicene Creed was adopted by the Council of Nicaea in 325. It was shaped over the next century to resolve controversies over the divine and human natures of Jesus Christ, and the relationship of mutuality within the Holy Trinity.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Reader I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for our Bishop, Austin, and our diocese; for this parish community and this gathering; and for all ministers and people.

I ask your prayers for Church of Our Saviour as we continue our journey through this time of transition and discernment, and for wisdom and guidance in the search for our permanent rector.

In our Anglican cycle of prayer, we ask your prayers for Église Anglicane du Rwanda. In our Diocesan cycle of prayer, we ask your prayers for the Holy Trinity/La Santissima Trinidad, Richmond; Trinity + St. Peter's, San Francisco; and Trinity, Menlo Park. In our parish cycle of prayer, we ask your prayers for the Monier, Mooney and Gloger families and the Ministry of COS Cares.

Pray for the Church.

Silence.

Reader I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people.
Pray for justice and peace.

Silence.

Reader I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of the divine.
Pray that they may find and be found by God in Christ.

Silence.

Reader I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison. For healing, we pray especially for Nini, Rom, Debbie, Kay, Larry, Nancy, Michelle, Katie, Leela, Betty, Anne, Roland, Jeanne, Charles
Pray for all in any need or trouble.

Silence.

Reader I ask your prayers for the departed
Pray for those who have died.

Silence.

CONFESSION OF SIN

The Deacon or Celebrant says

In prayer we bring the needs of the world,
and our own needs, to God.

During The Prayers of the People, we pray for:

- The Universal Church, its members, and its mission
- The Nation and all in authority
- The welfare of the world
- The concerns of the local community
- Those who suffer and those in any trouble
- The departed

You are invited to name people, places or things in your heart or out loud following each intercession.

Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.
Silence may be kept.

Most merciful God,
we confess that we have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done,
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.
For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us and forgive us;
that we may delight in your will,
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant

Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

THE PEACE

Celebrant The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People And also with you.

Then the Ministers and People may greet one another in the name of Jesus Christ.

In the Peace, we acknowledge that we encounter Christ in one another, and we prepare to receive communion.

In ancient times, Christians would greet each other with "the kiss of peace". Today we shake hands or hug. There are no set words- "Peace," "God's Peace," and "The Peace of the Lord be with you," are all commonly used.

WELCOME AND COMMUNITY ANNOUNCEMENTS

THE LITURGY OF THE TABLE

OFFERTORY

OFFERTORY ANTHEM Come Down O Love Divine

Representatives of the congregation bring the people's offerings of bread and wine to the celebrant.

The Liturgy of the Table is the second half of our worship. We shift our focus to the altar, God's table, where we meet Christ in the bread and wine that is offered, blessed, and shared.

In the offertory we present ourselves before God by offering the fruits of our common life and work. Your generosity supports the many ministries of Church of Our Saviour and The Episcopal Church around the world.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant God be with you.
People And also with you.
Celebrant Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy.

You have filled us and all creation with your blessing and fed us with your constant love; you have redeemed us in Jesus Christ and knit us into one body. Through your Spirit, you replenish us and call us to fullness of life. Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing (say):

SANCTUS

Hymnal S-129

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life. You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love.

You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace. But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves; we would not see your goodness in the world around us; and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love. Yet you never ceased to care for us, and prepared the way of salvation for all people. Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you. You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness, and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation. Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus. Born into the human family, and dwelling among us, he revealed your glory. Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life. On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said: "Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said: "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is poured out for you and for all for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Christ has died.
Christ is risen.
Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues

We begin Holy Communion with a dialogue (sometimes sung) that invites us to turn our attention towards God.

In the Eucharistic Prayer we praise God for the God's creating, saving and redeeming acts throughout history, and especially for the gift of Jesus Christ.

As we sing the Sanctus (Latin for 'Holy') we join with the whole heavenly host in praising God who calls us into relationship with the whole Body of Christ across time and space.

Together, we say a "memorial acclamation" that acknowledges that God is always on the side of humanity: past, present and future.

Remembering his death and resurrection, we now present to you from your creation this bread and this wine. By your Holy Spirit may they be for us the Body and Blood of our Savior Jesus Christ. Grant that we who share these gifts may be filled with the Holy Spirit and live as Christ's Body in the world. Bring us into the everlasting heritage of your daughters and sons, that with all your saints, past, present, and yet to come, we may praise your Name for ever. Through Christ and with Christ and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, to you be honor, glory, and praise, for ever and ever. AMEN.

People Amen.
Celebrant And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

People Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant breaks the consecrated Bread. A period of silence is kept.
Celebrant The Gifts of God for the People of God.

FRACTION ANTHEM

Hymnal S-154

COMMUNION HYMN

Hymnal 609

Gluten free wafers are available on request. All who are seeking Christ are invited to receive communion. Hold out your hands and you will be given the bread. Help the cupbearer by guiding the chalice to your lips by the base. You may also receive the bread and the wine together. Hold the bread in your hand and the chalice-bearer will dip it in the wine and return it to your hand. You have fully received communion if you receive only the bread or the wine. If you would prefer to receive a blessing simply cross your arms over your chest. Whoever you are, and whatever you need today, you are welcome here and we are glad you are with us.

POST COMMUNION PRAYER

Please stand as you are able.

Celebrant Let us pray.

People Eternal God, you have graciously accepted us as living members of our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Savior. Amen.

The priest asks God to send the Holy Spirit to bless the bread, wine, and us as we prepare to receive Communion.

In "The Great Amen" we all join in asking Jesus to be present in the bread and the wine.

The Lord's Prayer is the link between our daily bread, meaning the things we need to get through each day, and the spiritual food we will receive in the Eucharist.

Just like the bread and wine, our lives, if we choose to open them up to God, can also be taken (accepted by God), blessed (assured of God's loving-kindness and empowered to grow in God's Spirit), broken or poured (not held tightly in our own control), and shared (sent out to be Christ's presence in the world).

After communion, we say a prayer of thanksgiving together which reminds us to live our daily lives in the spirit of The Holy Eucharist, filled with thanksgiving, so that what we celebrate in the liturgy might become realized in our lives.

BLESSING

RECESSIONAL HYMN

Hymnal 525

DISMISSAL

The priest offers the congregation a blessing that assures us of God's ongoing love, guidance, and presence in our lives.

The final act of our common worship is the Dismissal. It is not an afterthought, but an integral part of the service.

We are sent out as apostles, to carry forward Christ's own work to change the world, and to call forth God's Kingdom. We go out from the church in mission and ministry to the world.

The Deacon, or the Celebrant, dismisses them with these words

Deacon Let us go forth into the world, rejoicing in the power of the Spirit.

People Thanks be to God.
